THE DAY IN THE SENATE.

Washington, July 2.—Mr. Plumb, from the committee on public lands, reported the senate bill to provide for the delivery of land patents to their rightful owners and asked for its immediate consideration.

The bill was then passed. It directs the secretary of the interior to send the recorder of deeds in each city in which lands so patented lie, lists of the land patents in that county that have been in the general land office uncalled for for twelve months.

Mr. Hiscock called up his motion to reconsider the vote by which the senate yesterday refused to recede from the amendments to the legislative appropriation bill, in reference to the pay of senators, clerks and sessional committee clerks. The motion was agreed to—yeas 26, nays 21.

After debate the senate receded from the amendments and the legislative bill now goes to the previous for the delivery of senators.

If Mr. Whitney, with Tammany, combines against the governor, he can not secure an undivided delegation from New York to the next presidential convention. If Mr. Whitney, with Tammany, makes a fight for Cleveland, he can obtain a sufficient number of delegates to overcome the objection that Cleveland is not potent in his own state. Whatever Mr. Whitney's purpose is he knows himself alone. knows himself alone.

Of the new arrangement one of the oracles who would talk said: "Mr. Whitney does not desire to control fammany in its minor manipulations. He will leave that to the subordinates, for such things are too trifling for his attention; but he will control it first for the commercial interests which he represents and must protect, and next for those greater political relations which are to be developed in the near future. What he will do with Tammany in respect to the governorship, the senatorship and the presidential nonanation remains to be seen. Under his direction, if Tammany hall makes a combination in the state elsewhere against Governor Hill that man's day is over." He will leave that to the subordinates, for Reports in the Cross Case Compared-Attorney Miles Secures a Change of Venue to Mead County.

OMARA, Neb., July 2.—Walter Ballard, manager of the mythical Thomas Lamber company, is in Jail. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out by the county attorney charging him with forging the name of 6. M. Griffin & Co., of Kansas City. Notes were manufactured in the office here by the wholesale, made payable either to the "Bon Carlos" or "Thomas" Lamber company and signed by G. M. Griffin & Co. These notes were offered for sale to local banks and private individuals and the parties referred to G. M. Griffin & Co., of Kansas City. A confederate at Kansas City got the letters and always replied that the notes were all right. Omaha people are out sums ranging from $50 to $5,000, and it is thought the theft will amount to nearly $50,000.

BRADFORD'S TESTIMONY GIVEN. Panis, Tex., July 2.—The day in the Cross case has been spent by the government in impeaching the witnesses. The impeaching testimony was of the usual character, except in the case of S. B. Bradford, ex attorney general of Kansas, whose report as attorney general made to Governor Martin, was read in contradiction of ernor Martin, was read in contradiction of his evidence of yesterday. In his report he stated that several defendants admitted being present at the killing, and also gave statements made to him by witnesses which materially varied from their evidence here. Yesterday on the stand he swore that the statements were not made to him as stated in his report. The report was admitted today to impeach him. He is now counsel for defendants. Bradford seemed to feel his position. The case will close tomorrow. Several days will be consumed in argument.
